Word Psalm 86

You are my God; have mercy on me, Lord, for I call to you all day long. Bring joy to your servant, Lord, for I put my trust in you. You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you. Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

This psalm is about God's everlasting mercy and forgiveness. Pope Francis says; 'The Lord never tires of forgiving, it is we who tire of asking for forgiveness'.

The Prodigal Son

The father thought about it and divided what he owned between them, giving his sons their inheritance.

The Prodigal Son

The youngest son moved far away and very soon spent all his money.

The Prodigal Son

He was very hungry and had no place to live, so he decided to get a job. He was given a job feeding pigs but no-one gave him anything to eat.

The Prodigal Son

When the father saw his youngest son returning, he was filled with great joy and ran to greet his returning son. He hugged and kissed the boy.

The Prodigal Son

The father dressed him up in the best robe, some new sandals and put a ring on his finger. The father was so happy that his son had returned that he threw a great feast to celebrate!

The Prodigal Son

While the younger brother had been away, the older brother had been working hard for his father and saved all of his inheritance. When he heard that his brother had returned with nothing and a great feast was being thrown for him, he felt very angry and jealous.

The Prodigal Son

But the father did not want his son to be jealous and angry. “We must celebrate and rejoice,” he told his older son, “because it is as if this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.”

Has anyone ever said sorry to you?

What did the story tell us about the father?

What can we learn from the story?

What happened
when the son said sorry?

I forgive when I accept God's forgiveness I can forgive others.

I accept forgiveness from others I can change after I have made a poor choice I know that with God's love I can change.

I have the courage to give myself and others a new start.

I understand that saying sorry is one way of making amends.

Going forth

Do you need to forgive somebody? Today, offer up a prayer for them. Give each class a large, heavy stone to take back to class. This weight represents the feelings of sadness, anger and revenge you have if someone hurts you. It also is a symbol of the strength that God gives you to forgive others.
