In God's love we live, learn and grow

Monday 11th September 2023
Twenty Third Sunday- Ordinary Time
Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples:

“If your brother sins against you,
Go and tell him his fault between you and him alone.
If he listens to you, you have won over your brother.
If he does not listen.

Take one or two others along with you.

So that ‘every fact may be established

On the testimony of two or three witnesses.’

If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church.

If he refuses to listen even to the church,

then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector.

Amen, I say to you.

Twenty Third Sunday- Ordinary Time
Matthew 18:15-20

Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven,
And whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
Again, amen, I say to you,
If two of you agree on earth
About anything for them by my heavenly Father.
For where two or three are gathered together in my name,
there am I in the midst of them.”

The Bible tells us:

It is important to get along well with others, but it's not always easy, In fact, the Gospel today mentions how we might have to go through a few steps to fix a conflict we have in relationships.

We should try to solve the problem and restore our friendship. If that does not work, though, sometimes we need to get other people involved. We can ask friends for help, or we can even turn to our parents to try to assist. With prayer and care, we can resolve things and be able to work together.

As Pope Francis has written, “Unlike disagreement and conflict, persistent and courageous dialogue does not make headlines, but quietly helps the world to live much better than we imagine.”
(Fratelli Tutti).

Bidding Prayers

For a renewed care for our planet, during this Season of Creation and at all times: that we may kneel before the God who made us and be ever mindful and protective of God's great gift of our common home...
Lord hear us.

For all who are burdened with debt and are struggling to get by in difficult times: that God may be their guide and their help and that they may receive loving and practical support from God's people...

Lord hear us.

Monday 11th September 2023

We pray for our brothers and sisters throughout the world, especially those who are poor, vulnerable or excluded. Through God's grace may we work together to build a world where all are welcomed, all are loved and all have their fair share of the gifts that God gives for all.

Lord hear us.

We pray for the Church; that God will give all Christians a spirit of listening, so that we may receive God's word and have the courage to put it into practice
Lord hear us.

In God's love we live, learn and grow

Monday 11th September 2023

Dear God,
Help us to resolve our arguments
To remember your grace
And to have good relationships
Thank you for your forgiveness
Help us pass it on to others
Thank you for your love
We love you, God!
In Jesus name, Amen.
